Start Kills Chances of the Favorite, Burnt Hills-Adriutha First in a Thrilling Finish—Lady Amelia Successfully Carries Heavy Weight at Gravesend

Three favorites in seven races won at Graves and yesterday, where the chilly weather imited the attendance to the regulars. esture was the Willow Handicap, for twoyear-old fillies, at five and a half furlongs, for which John Sanford's Burnt Hills, the top weight, was a pronounced favorite at 18 to 19, but the start killed her chances and the was unable to finish inside of the money After leading to the last furlong pole, Hand garra, 4 to 1, began to stop, and Pierre Lorilard's Chrysitis, a 10 to 1 shot, came on and won in a gallop by four lengths in 1:07 3-5. The Albemarle Stable's Santa Catalina, 20 to 1, nipped the place from Handzarra by a head. Burnt Hills running fourth. Lady Amelia, 8 to 5 favorite, picked up the rushing burden of 130 pounds and won the handicap for mares of all ages at about six furlongs. She was the leader practically from and. Redfern riding her out to beat Ancestor. s to 1, by half a length in 1:10. Anceston ridden by Hildebrand, was always the runner up and finished two lengths before Ascension, to to 1, who was off slowly. The two-yearold Teacress, second in favor, did her best, but she was three parts of a length behind

Sydney Paget's colors were carried to the front in the second race, for maiden two-year-olds, by Juvenaga, 3 to 1, favorite, who ran away from a big field at the outset and galloped home with ten lengths to spare. loe Veager's Hildebrand, named for the jockey who rode him, got out of the bunch in time to take second money by a length, with 12 to 1 about him. Andrew Miller's Cov Maid, a Kingston filly, who was backed down to 4 to 1, even though it was her first start, made up a lot of ground in the stretch and finished third, a length before Limerick The time was 1:01 3-5.

The finish of the handicap for all ages at mile and a furlong was a clinker, three horses being noses apart as they passed the judges' line of vision. Ostrich, who had a oull at the weights, was made the choice et 18 to 10, with Hurst Park well backed at to 2. John Sanford's Adriutha, Hildebrand up, was a warm tip and was played down to sixes. Hurst Park was taken to the front by Odom and set a steady pace. Willie Davis fell in behind with Ostrich, followed by colonial Girl and Adriutha. At the head of the stretch Hildebrand came through on rail with Adriutha and put her the whip, the Sanford filly quickly going to the front, with Hurst Park and Ostrich hooked up in a terrific duel. At the wire they were close together that all sorts of opinions prevailed as to the actual result. The official verdict gave the race to Adriutha by a head with Hurst Park the same margin before Ostrich. Had Davis used his whip in the last time was 1:54 3-5. Colonial Girl closed strongly

Sidney C. Love, carrying Joe Yeager's money at 7 to 2, won the fifth event, at a mile and a sixteenth, by a length from Eagle, 4 to 1. The latter was a head in front of S. S. Brown's Proceeds, 6 to 1, who was virtually left at the post. Gravina, another good thing, was a head back. Frank Farrell's Andrew Mack, who was backed from 30 to 1 down to eights. overland, followed by a short tussle with the pacemakers on the far turn, stopped to nothing. The time was 1:49.

After a long whipping finish all through the stretch, Princess Atheling, 7 to 1, won the sixth event, for maidens, at a mile and a sixteenth, by a head from Out of Reach, 5 to 1. After, be ing far back in the ruck for half the distance, Spring Silk, 9 to 5 favorite, closed with a rush and was third. The time was 1:30 2-5.

closed with a rush and was that it was 1:50 2-5.

Frank Weir's filly Calmness, a 8 to 2 favorite, ran off with the last event, for maiden two-year-olds, at five furlongs, coming home eased up with four lengths over Black Cat, 8 to 1. James R. Keene's Sumatra, 7 to 2, was two lengths away. The time was 1:03.

SPORT AT MINEOLA FAIR. Horse Show and Harness Races Interest the Hunting Set.

MINEOLA, L. I., Sept. 23.-With a throng of society folk from the hunting set in attendance and some excellent horseflesh in competition, the third annual Horse Show of the Queens-Nassau Counties Agricultural So-cieties opened here to-day on the FairGrounds. Great interest was manifested in the hack race, something novel in the horse show line The nine contestants competed in a private sweepstakes of $5 each, racing half a mile, and were judged on their speed and smoothness of going.

Thomas Hitchcock, Miss Mollie C. Maxwell and Samuel Willetts, with Richard F. Carman, whose four-in-hand scored a signal triumph, were among the principal winners of the day The Elajnore Stock Farm of Edward R. Ladew scored splendidly in the trotting bred and long tailed classes.

In class 27, for green or qualified hunters, there was a distressing accident. The brown gelding Winchester, ridden by William J. Davey, gained third prize in the competition. The horse is the property of Samuel Willetts and after one of his jumps carromed against The shock frightened the horse and he caught Mr. Davey over the left eye with his hoof, cutting a deep gash from which the blood flowed and knocking the prostrate man sense-less. He came to with medical attention and competed in the later classes for hunters.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

HILDEBRAND APPEARS TO BE GETTING BACK TO FORM.

Fault Found With the Starting-Remarks able Array of Good Things Handed Out Through the Seven Events-More Lively Bidding Follows Selling Races.

Hildebrand showed some signs of coming back to his old form yesterday by riding two winners and three seconds. He had ridden only one winner in the preceding ten days, and his followers were about ready to turn from him to some new idol. Whatever caused such a remarkable slump, nobody seems able to explain, but it cannot nied that from a phenomenal career in the saddle, which placed him far ahead of all other jockeys in the struggle for the season's honors, Hildebrand dropped out of the public favor almost as quickly as he came into it. In the meantime Willie Davis, who also handled two winners yesterday, has been enjoying some of Hildebrand's fast popularity. Early in the year Hildebrand was followed by an army of betters who thought ceptibly thinned in the last month. Joe eager, the boy's mentor and manager, is big loser on the season, probably because he has not consistently played his jockey's mounts. There was considerable growling over the starting yesterday, especially when Burnt Hills was left in the Willow Handicap. She carried thousands of the public's money, which went up in thin smoke, while Chrysitis, the winner, was practically ignored by except her owner, Mr. Lorillard, who bet enough to clean up about $4,000 on the result. The send-off in the fifth race was equally poor, Proceeds, backed down to 6 to 1, being left, while Andrew Mack was off so poorly that he had no chance after Davis had made up the lost ground in a hustling journey up the backstretch. In justice to Starter Cassidy, it must be said that he had unusually large fields to handle, and many unruly horses made things trying for him. Since taking up his duties at the barrier, he has done good work, but the standard must be maintained to compare favorably with the splendid starting by C. J. Fitzgerald all summer.

"Father Bill" Daly got the selling race war fever yesterday and surprised people by bidding up Sydney Paget's Juvenaga, after the second race, to $1,500, an increase of only $300, Joyner protecting and keeping the gelding at that figure. As a natural sequence, $150 went to Joe Yeager, who ran second with the Halma colt Hildebrand, unbacked, however, by the plunger. Later on, Sidney C. Love, running in the name of E. E. Stutte, Yeager's business associate, was run up to $2,000, an increase of $1,000, after the fifth race, and retained, Billy Dubois, who ran second with Eagle, doing the bidding. Stolen Moments ran for the first time in A. L. Aste's name in this race since the "Bootblack King" claimed her out of a selling race from Mrs. L. Curtis. The Kingston illy was a favorite in the betting, but she stopped badly after being prominent for three-quarters of a mile. It was thought that somebody would put in a claim for Stolen Moments as a further shot at Aste and his strenuous trainer, Halter Tommy Griffin, but there was nothing doing.

After running second in the last race on Thursday, John W. Schorr's Grey Friar dropped dead in his stall. It was said that his death was due to over exertion and heart

There has not been a day this season that so many attempted coups have been framed up as yesterday. The air was full of whis-pered rumors of killings and good things until the crowd was bewildered. Beginning with the first race, in which Lady Amelia was the popular choice, Ancestor was tipped to win, and her odds dropped from tens to sixes. Fred Gebhard's expensive but disappointing Ragian was another one off the griddle, backed from 100 to 1 to 60. In the second race Limerick was said to be "in," the price falling from 12 to 8. Also Coy Maid, from Andrew Miller's stable, the Kingston filly carrying enough smart money to break the odds from sixes to fours. Drone was another het one, lowered from tens to eights, with Confessor and Bill Bailey II. also handed out all over the track.

Adriutha was a real good thing in the third. for she came home in front, and a big bundle of money was taken from the ring by the speculators who play the Sanford horses as a rule. Yeager won $7,000 alone on the Clif-Handzarra was Willow Handicap, to beat the favorite. This stead of the stable boy. Hoffler, and some-In the West this method of suddenly changing from an inexperienced apprentice to star jockey is generally frowned upon, but it seems to go here unmolested. If Handzarra had won this race, it would have been a dis-sidney C. Love was a scorcher for the pookies in the fifth, as Yeager and his friends, including Ed Stutte, bet a large amount, backing the colt down from fives to 7 to 2. Eagle and Stolen Moments were also well backed; but Proceeds, from S. S. Brown's string, was the biggest disappointment. Bob Tucker had his checks down, the colt being reduced from tens to sixes. he was left at the barrier, he ran well enough to have won with an even break. The judges placed him third, though from an angle it looked as if Gravina, played from 15 to 1 to eights, had beaten him a nage. Frank Farrell framed up a big coup with Andrew Mack in this race. The Charaxus colt never looked better and warmed up in fine style Farrell and his friends got on enough money to send the colt to the post at 8 to 1, though he was opened in several books at 30.

Doc Kyle cut loose a genuine sleeper Princess Atheling in the sixth race, getting 7 to 1 all over the ring. Lewis H. was on the tip of the tongue, closing at 7 to 2. Mattie Corbett stood to win a neat sum with Out of Reach, but the son of Persimmon was beaten a head. Jack McGinnis bad Black Cat up his sleeve in the last race. He backed the Faraday filly down to $ to 1 and would have won $25,000 At that McGinnis was a winner to the race, as the filly was also played place and show. Big Tim Sullivan's adherents thought Ismailian had a chance and got their greenbacks on at sevens. Grace Curtis, who ran fourth, was pounded down to 6 to 1. Istria was another trick that dropped to twenties while many shrewd players backed Sumatra, from the Keene stable. The books, as a re-sult, did an unusual amount of business during the day and nearly all of them quit

Starter Cassidy suspended Tommy Burns on Thursday for four days because he did not get away from the post with Proper in the Occidental Handicap. Proper is a toriously bad actor at the barrier and has been frequently left, so that his owner, W. B. Jennings and others, believing that Burns was entirely blameless, interceded for the the suspension and Burns was allowed to

"Yes, but what chance has a blackbird got with a Black Cat?" remarked the other. "Black Cat for mine," and he dashed off into the ring to get aboard. Higgins and McFadden were each set down

Gans Posts $1,000 to Meet Jimmy Britt. To show that he is in earnest about arrangeasily get to the lightweight limit, 133 pounds. Joe Gans yesterday posted $1,000 to bind the match. Harry Corbett is holding the money. The only obstacle to the men fac-ing each other is the announcement that no more fights are to be allowed in Sap Francisco this month. Britt is intent upon deciding the combat there, but this apparently is out of the question. Gans is willing to go to Los Angeles, Butte, Mon., or any place Britt names.

IN THE FOOTBALL WORLD. Playing of Games Begins in Earnest To-day

The football campaign for 1904 has its real beginning to-day. There have been a few scattering games, but this is the day on which scattering games, but this is the day on which the schedule will be generally got under way. Harvard, Yale and Princeton do not play games until next week, but Columbia, Pennsylvania and numerous of the smaller teams will line up against opponents this afternoon

Columbia vs. Union, at New York. Pennsylvania vs. Pennsylvania State, at Phil-

Williams vs. Laureate B. C., at Williamstown.
Colgate vs. Utica Free Academy, at Hamilton.
Georgetown vs. Maryland "Aggles," at Washing-Virginia vs. Randolph-Macon, at Charlottes-

Rochester vs. Niagara, at Rochester. Carlisle Indians vs. Albright, at Carlisle. Lafayette vs. Wyoming Seminary, at Easton. Dickinon vs. Western Maryland College, at Car-Syracuse vs. Cortland Normal, at Syracuse, Chicago vs. Lawrence, at Chicago.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 23 .- There were things doing in to-day's practice of the Har-vard 'varsity football eleven on Soldiers' Field. The men had their first drill in blocking and breaking through, and several changes were made in the make-up of the first eleven. The most significant change was shifting Phil Mills from full back on the 'varsity to left tackle on the second. Mills played tackle on the freshman eleven three years ago and in his sophomore year played end on the 'varsity, while last year he was substitute full back. He weighs 200 pounds substitute full back. He weighs 200 pounds now and is a bit too heavy for back of the line. Ray Oveson, for two years a 'varsity subtackle, returned to-day, weighing over 200 pounds. The changes in the first eleven were McFadden for Pell, Guild for Mills and Means for Nesmith, making the line-up: Blagden, l. e.; Meier, l. t.; Wilder, lg. Cuniff, c.; McFadden, r. g.; Squires, r. t.; Montgomery, r. e.; Noyes, q. b.; Hurley, Guild and Means, backs. The arrangement of the backs in the diagonal formation, which Harvard is using, is such that it is impossible to tell what back a man is playing, except in defensive work, and there has not yet been any of that. The first scrimmage will be held next Monday.

Easton, Pa., Sept. 23.—Lafayette will open the football season to-morrow afternoon in a contest with Wyoming Seminary. This afternoon there was a line-up of scrubs against the regular team so far selected. Hopper, who played end on the famous 1901 team and is again out, will be placed at end: Logan and Koerber of the freshman class, will be tried at guard, and McAvoy will start the game at half back. Craig and Rogers will also get a trial in the second balf. Of the old men, Scammell will be found at right half back and Newbury at tackle, while Hoskins and Doud are again out for centre and guard respectively. Wren will be at tackle and Thomas at left end. There are, however, no certainties as yet, and the best of the old men will have to work hard against some of the new men to hold their places. Full back Monahan, who was injured last Wednesday, is out of the game for a few days and his position will be filled by Van Atta, who played such a brilliant game last year.

The first team of the season was picked at New York University yesterday. After half an hour's work in catching punts and tackling, Capt. Reilley selected eleven men for signal practice. Nothing but simple plays were used, but the men were coached in a new style of interference on end plays. The only 'varsity men in the line were Reilley, at left tackle, and Reynolds, at centre. The latter has not played for a year, owing to an injury. Capt. Reilley announced that a freshman team will be organized as soon as college opens and that a schedule will be arranged.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 23.—The Tigers had another long, hard practice this afternoon, the plays being run off with a vim and snap which it is thought the coaches will try to make a prominent feature of this season's tactics. The 'varsity succeeded in scoring a touchdown, but the scrub put up a strong defence. Two new candidates from the entering class reported to-day. They are Samuels and Reiter, both from the Princeton 'Prep' school. Reiter is a brother of "Bosey" Reiter, the half back of 1900. Samuels is a big fellow, weighing close to 200 pounds and plays with lots of nerve. He is trying for guard.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 23.—The Cernell squad had hard and leng practice again to-day. A twenty minute practice game was played between two picked teams, which brought forth Coach Warner's first selection of a varsity eleven. It was made up as follows: Sheldon, l. e.; Cook, l. t.; Dann, l. g.; Chapman, c.; Smith, r. g.; Peterson, r. t.; Oderkirk, r. e.; Lynch, q. b.; Rice, l. h. b.; Birmingham, r. h. b.; Coe, f. b. The varsity scored on the second eleven twice, once by a field goal. Birmingham, the star freshman back, kicked the goal from the 30-yard line. The work of both elevens showed improvement, and Coach Warner is pleased with the way his men are executing plays. The 'varsity ends, Forgy and Hackstaff, are laid up with muscle bruises. It is now almost certain that Costello, last year's big guard, will return to the university in a few days and join the squad. Newman, who was scheduled turn to the university in a lew days and Join the squad. Newman, who was scheduled for the centre position, has left the university, but the hole he leaves in the line will be filled in a few days by Wilder, who played the posi-tion last year until injured. Wilder weighs

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 23.—Charles Lawrence, tackle on the Yale football squad, went on the hospital list to-day with a dislocated right knee. He is the third Yale man laid off from practice because of injuries. Shevlin came here from the West with a sprain, and it will be several days before he gets into the game in his old form, and Bowman, who was booked to do the punting for Yale in the Wesleyan game next Wednesday, will not be able to play for a while, on account of his dislocated shoulder. Lawrence was hurt in a scrimmage after he made a clever tackle in bringing Quill down. The squad was divided into two elevens this afternoon, with Hogan, Kinney, Roraback and Rockwell of last year's cleven on the 'varsity. The scrub, or college, team once held the 'varsity for downs. Walter Camp, Frank Butterworth and Ledyard Mitchell, who is here to coach the punters, assisted in the work this afternoom.

RAINBOW BEATS YANKEE. Nip and Tuck Race Between 70-Footers in

N. Y. Y. C. Final Regatta. The last regatta of the season of the New York Yacht Club was sailed yesterday on the Sound, and by a special agreement the 70-footers were to be sailed by their owners. Harry L. Maxwell was allowed to represent his father on the Yankee.

The race was started off Mott's Point at the entrance to Hempstead Harbor. The 70-footers went first to Parsonage Point, then to Shippan Point and then back to Mott's Point. The first leg was a run with spinnakers for four miles, the second a broad reach of 7½ miles and the third a beat of 10 miles. The wind was fresh from the southwest. The preparatory signal was made at 2 o'clock and five minutes later the boats were sent off.

The Yankee was first across the line, with the Virginia second, and the Rainbow was handi-capped 18 seconds. Down the wind Rainbow verhauled the leaders and went to the front The times at the first mark were: Rainbow, 2:45:04; Virginia, 2:45:14, and Yankee, 2:45:17. The next leg was a broad reach, the yachts carrying balloon jib topsails. The Rainbow improved her position, and the Yankes and Virginia had a luffing match, and the and Virginia had a luffing match, and the Yankee finally got by the Virginia. The times at the second mark were: Rainbow, 3:26:10; Yankee, 3:27:15; Virginia, 3:26:30.

The Rainbow and the Yankee had it nip and tuck all the way home, and the Yankee was beaten by 1 minute 24 seconds.

The smaller boats salled a course 11½ miles long. The Mimosa 111. owned by Trenor L. Park, won in the 38-foot class, and The Kid, owned by Oliver Harriman, finished first in the raceabout class. The Cricket was second and a protest was filed against The Kid for having forced the Cricket to tack when the Cricket had the right of way. The summary:

LIFELESS PLAY BY NEW YORKS

NEW CHAMPIONS SHUT OUT BY OLD CHAMPIONS.

Only Two Hits Off Pitcher Case Pirates Again in Second Place, as Chicagos Loze to Brooklyns-Reds Win in Boston and the Quakers Beat St. Louis Team.

The New York Nationals have the pennant von, but they are not likely to equal Pittsburg's 1902 percentage of .741 the way they are playing. They were shut out by the Pittsburgs yesterday, and the Pirates went back to second place, Chicago losing to Brook lyn, Cincinnati won in Boston and St. Louis lost in Philadelphia. The results: Pittsburg, 7: New York, 0.

PITTSBURG, 7; NEW YORK (N. L.), 0. The new champions were whitewashed by the fading champions at the Polo Grounds yesterday. Many thespians adorned the boxes in the upper grand stand, and one of them aptly observed: "About as entertaining as a cricket match." He hit the nail on the head. The Pittsburgs showed some interest in the game, but the New Yorks were a lifeless lot and played a perfunctory game. At first they nagged the umpire a good deal, but later even this misguided animation vanished.

A catch by J. Gilbert and a stop by Wagner were plays of exceptional merit. Exception, too, should be made as to New York's listlessness, the same being the good third play of Devlin and a rattling good double play by McGann, Ames and Bowerman. his pitching Ames was too wild for safety. local stick swingers were helpless, plucking only two forlorn singles off the tree bearing Case's curves and speed.

A base on balls to Wagner-who appropriated first base in that manner three times —a wild pitch, McCormick's sacrifice, hits by Bransfield and Case and two more bases on balls gave the Pirates three runs in the second inning. Dunn batted for Ames in the eighth, and McGraw apparently had no other pitcher on the bench, as Bowerman became the deceiving end of the battery in the ninth. He was easy to hit, and four more runs were made. The score:

BROOKLYN, 3: CHICAGO (N. L.), 2.

The excellent pitching of Jones, backed up by clean fielding, gave Brooklyn a victory over Chicago yesterday. The Brooklyns scored two runs in the third inning. Jordan was hit by a pitched ball and stole second, Dillon hit for two bases and Lumley for one base. In the sixth a base on balls to Lumley and Sheckard's two bagger gave Brooklyn a run. A base on balls to Chance, Barry sacrifice, Tinker's three bagger and McChesney's double gave the Cubs two counts in the seventh. The score:

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23.—In a pitchers' battle, in which the honors were even between Powell and Bernhard, neither Cleveland nor Nex York could win this afternoon, and at the end of the ninth inning Umpire Sheridan called the game, with the score 1 to 1, owing to darkness. The game was a pretty one to darkness. The game was a pretty one to watch, and a hit at any time would have decided the result, but it was then that the pitchers showed their effectiveness. This was especially true of the work of Powell, who would not take chances with Lajoie at the bat and let him walk three times, and took chances with Rossman, the Connecticut Leaguer, but he was not able to make the hit that would decide the result any of the four times he had the golden opportunity. Bernhard also pitched good ball after the third inning. Both runs were due to gifts,

Powell and Eiberfeld let Cleveland score their only tally in the first inning, when Bradley had reached first on a force out, took third on Flick's single and Elberfeld's wide throw and scored on a wild pitch. Turner's wild throw in the third allowed Keeler to be safe at first, and he scored on two singles and a force-out. There were men on bases in every inning after that. The score:

Baseball Notes. The Pittsburg Club has signed Catcher Rafter

of Troy.

The famous All Cuban ball team will make its farewell appearance at the Protectory Grounds, Van Nest, to-morrow afternoon. They sail for Cuba the following day.

There is no good reason why the New York Nationals should not give their patrons good ball antil the season closes. Winning the pennant does not excuse the careless, indifferent playing of the last two days. The liberal support given the team entities the supporters to the best the New Yorks have in the though until the season closes.

YACHT INGOMAR ARRIVES. Morton F. Plant's Schooner Returns From

Victorious Trip Abroad. NEW LONDON, Sept. 23 Morton F. Plant's schooner yacht Ingomar entered New Lon-don harbor at 9 o'clock this morning on her schooner yacht Ingomar entered New London harbor at 9 o'clock this morning on her trip from abroad, where she won honors in international regattas.

The Ingomar was sighted off Montauk light early this morning. She came international regattas.

The Ingomar was sighted off Montauk light early this morning. She came international regattas in the Ingomar was she proceeded up the harbor. Factory and steamship whistles cheered the craft as she lowered her sails, and she was immediately taken in tow and brought to anchor in the upper harbor.

The yacht made the trip from Southampton in twenty-five days.

Capt. Charles Barr, who was in command of the vessel, and who succeeded in steering the trim racer to nineteen victories while abroad, was the first member of the crew of twenty-four to step ashore, being rewed in a small boat to the custom house wharf, off which the Ingomar had dropped anchor. Capt. Barr said his yacht met a succession of strong winds and calms on the trip across, and in fact encountered no moderate winds. She was compelled to lay to half a dozen times owing to the vagaries of the wind. At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon South Sheals lightship, Nantucket, was sighted, and the Ingomar was compelled to wait off the light several hours before striking a breeze by which she could proceed.

Capt. Barr was reticent about the trophies he won abroad. The yacht will probably go into winter quarters here.

A Startling New Discovery That Appeals to Old and Middle-aged Men Whose Vigor Is Falling or Vitality Flagging. USED LOCALLY AND GIVES IMMEDIATE RESULTS. New Life, New Sensation. New Circulation, New Grawth.

I have labbred indefatigably for 20 years in the field of Dissuases of Men. My name and my reputation are known here and abroad. I trest nothing else. I cure my cases. I have thousands of living, breathing, honest and incorruptible proofs of my and and knowledge in this city and in every State of the Union.

But all that I have done for 20 years does not compare in the portance with my latest discovery—The Elikir of Life. Its powers and properties are as wonderful as those of radium, and more far reaching and practical than any known remedy. Ba its accret use old men can be made young again—can taste once more the vigor and fire of early youth—can throw off the shackles of feebleness—incompetency—and bid sterility farewell.

This is not a Patent Medicine. It is only supplied to patients who place themselves under my care for either office or home treatment and is specially prepared and adapted to each individual case as diagnosed.
